

I implore you not to implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We have been inundated with calls and at the most inconvenient times. In fact, last Christmas Eve evening while our family was together for our Christmas celebration we had a telemarketing call. That is totally unacceptable. With a computer, phone, TV, etc. we can access anyone we wish to do business with, without them calling us.